The Cabinet for Economic Development offers additional workforce training and recruiting assistance for new and existing employees at no charge. Industrial businesses can benefit from Shelby County Associated Industries (SCAI), which is a forum for plant managers, owners and lead staff to discuss issues affecting local industry at bi-monthly meetings. GETTING HERE

Strategically located in the “Golden Triangle” between Louisville and Lexington, Shelby County offers the convenience of easy access to I-64, I-71, I-65 and I-75, and is about a day’s drive (within 600 miles) to two-thirds of the U.S. population. It’s 30 minutes to Louisville International Airport, as well as the UPS Worldport, the largest automated package handling facility in the world. RJ Corman and Norfolk Southern railroads both service areas of our community.

I joined the Chamber to better understand the community in order to design healthcare that is personalized to our region. My value add is connections that provide meaningful relationships both personally and professionally.

- Aaron Garofola

I joined the Chamber because I love Shelby County and I wanted to be a part of a group that constantly works toward making this the best place to live. It is a great opportunity to meet all different people and also reaching out to educate those about all the great things this community has to offer.

- Kelly McNew

If you want to join the Shelby County community, serve and volunteer. Consider joining your Shelby County Chamber of Commerce. Volunteering is at the very core of being human and we all have needed the blessing of an unseen volunteer and now it may be your time to serve another.

- Susan Nally

TOURISM TRANSFORMING OUR COMMUNITY AND FUELING ECONOMIC GROWTH

By Janette Marson

In Shelby County we are known for our picturesque landscapes, horse culture and the production of Kentucky Bourbon. Our small-town charm, combined with deep equestrian traditions and distillery heritage, creates a unique and vibrant energy that is drawing tourists from across the country and around the world!

This last year, the Shelby County Tourism office has done more advertising in the U.S. and abroad than ever before, and Shelby County as a whole is truly reaping the benefits. In 2022, the economic impact in Shelby County from tourist spending was $80.45 million, and we anticipate that this number will continue to increase. Tourists love what we have to offer and want to spend money here!

When outside tourist dollars come into our area, we all benefit. Tourism brings in visitors who are frequenting local shops, markets, farms and restaurants, injecting money directly into the community and supporting both small and large local businesses.

The influx of tourists to Shelby County inevitably leads to an increased demand for services, creating job opportunities in a variety of work sectors. When tourists spend their money in Shelby County, they are generating tax revenue for the local government, helping fund public services, infrastructure improvements and community development projects. The more outside dollars that flood into our county, the less taxes that we who live here have to pay!

We are blessed that we live in an area that offers something for every traveler. For the bourbon enthusiast both Jephtha Creed and Bulleit distilleries have tours, tastings and shopping. Simpsonville is the home to the only designer outlet mall in Kentucky and brings in a whopping 4 million shopping guests every year! We are famous as the Saddlebred Capital of the World with a variety of farm tours for large or small groups. Groups from all over the world come to eat at the historically famous Claudia Sanders Dinner House.

ShelbyKY Tourism is working hard to bring in outside tourist money to Shelby County and in turn enhance the overall quality of life for all residents.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

VIBRANT DOWNTOWN SHELBYVILLE HAS IT ALL... SHOPPING, DINING, EVENTS AND MORE!

Downtown Shelbyville is practically bursting at the seams with businesses ready to engage visitors for a full day of shopping, dining and exploring. With five new businesses, six expansions and four additional businesses set to open the first of the year, Shelbyville is an economic powerhouse with something to offer everyone.

We are very fortunate to have very few spaces that are available for lease or sale downtown. We have a great variety of retail, food and service-oriented businesses. Having a good mix is ideal, as it keeps people exploring downtown longer.

In the heart of our downtown you'll find a variety of businesses, including sweet treats, coffee, clothing boutiques (women's and children's), antique shops, a pet shop, plant store, art galleries, a community theater and flower and gift shops; not to mention wonderful restaurants, a fabulous library, event venues, AirBnBs, breweries, service businesses, nonprofits and our incredible historic buildings.

Not to mention, we're on the bourbon trail! Shelbyville is a perfect destination for those looking for a day trip or extended stay.

The city has several outdoor areas that are great for events or just for socializing. A standout venue is Stargazer Plaza. The Plaza is a covered pavilion that hosts a summer concert series as well as numerous family-focused events, such as game night and bingo. On the second Saturday of November, the city holds its annual Celebration of Lights, where vendors set up shop from Seventh to Fourth streets. Santa's workshop is located under the pavilion, and the evening culminates with the lighting of the tree across from the Old Courthouse. This event is a wonderful community tradition. Stargazer Plaza hosts many events throughout the year and is also available to rent so everyone can utilize this great space.

Another outdoor area is our Sixth Street between Main and Washington Streets. This space has been blocked off to vehicles and is a great pedestrian spot, which also hosts numerous concerts and activities throughout the year. Along Sixth Street you'll find several retail businesses and art galleries.

Our events start in May with our Wild about Shelbyville Arts and Music Festival, focusing on the local talent we have in Shelby County. Then we move into our summer concerts, car cruise, Jeep invasion, downtown trick or treating and many holiday events. We also offer a farmers market starting in June through October.

In addition to our events, visitors are encouraged to explore downtown and enjoy our Sculpture Walk and those incredible historic buildings and landmarks. A newly-added sculpture is featured at the corner of Eighth and Main. We are also close to parks and walking trails.

We love when people visit Shelbyville. We love our small businesses and feel they are truly the heart of our downtown. Hope to see you on Main!

RIGHT PLACE, RIGHT PEOPLE KEY TO SHELBY COUNTY'S SUCCESS

By Ray Leathers

Shelby County's location at a crossroads of America makes it an obvious place for industrial powerhouses to locate, but it's the area's leadership that makes it possible for thriving businesses to find their place here.

"We're at the demographic center of the U.S. for everything east of the Rocky Mountains, which is 80% of the country's population," said Ray Leathers, president, and CEO of the Shelby County Industrial & Development Foundation. "We're located in the Golden Triangle between Louisville, Lexington and Cincinnati, and are only a day's drive from any major trading center from Chicago to Atlanta."

Additionally, the county is surrounded by four interstates, contains two class A railroads, has access to international waterways through the Ohio River and is 20 minutes from the UPS World Port in Louisville. There are 220,000 acres of agriculture, and Shelbyville, one of the two main towns that make up the county, is capital of the Saddlebred horse industry.

Shelby County is also at the heart of the Bourbon Trail, boasting two distilleries and three more to come.

Such a central location has attracted 82 industries to set up shop in the county. Leathers said the county expects to see 12 million square feet of new industrial manufacturing, distribution facilities and three new distilleries over the next few years.

“The reason people are coming here now is because of the cost of logistics. Freight to bring raw materials in and finished products out is one of the biggest costs, so us being in the demographic center of the U.S. is an incentive,” he said.

Abundant energy in the form of coal and hydro power generation makes for inexpensive energy costs, and a favorable tax structure also acts as an incentive.

Beyond the structural benefits like location, utilities and low infrastructure costs, county leadership takes a proactive approach to bringing new companies to the area.

“What drives success is the cooperation of local government,” Leathers said. “Judges, councilmen, magistrates, and the mayors of the county’s two main cities (Shelbyville and Simpsonville) all work more cooperatively than most local governments situations you’ll find. They have a great relationship with their state counterparts, as well. It’s a cooperative process that makes new business entry into our community a lot easier.”

SHELBY COUNTY ASSOCIATED INDUSTRIES

HELPING INDUSTRIES GROW

The association is an industry-led non-profit membership organization. Any Shelby County industry may join. But why should they? Because our varied industries face similar challenges, and we can develop faster, stronger and cheaper solutions together.

The board of directors is elected from the industry members and sets the focus for the group. Current target areas include workforce development, recruitment, retention, education and continuous improvement. To view a schedule of meetings and events visit <https://scidf.com/associated-industries/>

To join complete a short online application or contact our training coordinator, Charlie Clabaugh (charlie@scidf.com).

A TRAINING CONSORTIUM FOR WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

Associated Industries operates a Training Consortium for the benefit of its members and our community. A consortium is a group made up of two or more individuals, companies or governments that work together to achieve a common objective. Our objective is workforce development.

The importance of a skilled workforce has never been greater, and successful companies prepare to meet evolving needs. Through this industry-led group, common needs and gaps in skills-training are identified and addressed. Individual industries are highly encouraged to contact us directly to make requests and suggestions at any time.

Examples of upcoming training courses include, but are not limited to:

EDUCATION

SHELBY COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Shelby County Public Schools is preparing wise students who master standards, lead by example and embrace social responsibility. Close to 7,000 students enjoy a well-rounded education with outstanding opportunities.

Some of our top priorities include personalized learning, college and career readiness, and technical education. In our elementary schools, strong relationships are built through houses, teams and families. Sports programs like football, basketball, softball, track and field, volleyball and lacrosse offer students extracurricular opportunities. We have award-winning VEX Robotics teams, band, theater arts, visual arts, Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America, Rising Educators, Junior Home Builders Association, Black Achievers and more!

The SCPS Profile of a Graduate was created by our community as a vision statement describing the expectations our community believes are required of successful leaders who graduate from our district. Being a critical thinker, a responsible collaborator, an inspired innovator, a global citizen, a lifelong learner and an effective communicator are competencies that students strive to become. They demonstrate their learning in these competencies during their defenses of learning at the end of their 5th, 8th and 12th-grade years.

Shelby County Public Schools is committed to our community, and our community is committed to us. Recently, the Prichard Committee awarded SCPS a $1.5 million grant over five years to work toward becoming a part of the Community Schools Model. Kentucky is the only state to embrace this model, which includes services and support that fit a community's needs, created and run by the people who know our children best, all working together.

Shelby County is located 30 miles from Louisville, KY, and 60 miles from Lexington, KY. Our community has a few small towns with big hearts, and we are the Saddlebred Capital of the World.
