Feb 6th – Paws for A Cause @ Mallard Hall

On Thursday, February 6, 2025, Mallard Hall Estate will host a 1920's-themed Speakeasy Soiree to benefit the Shelby County Humane Society (SCHS).

The evening will include music, dinner, drinks, and animal-themed surprises, all focused on supporting the Shelby County Humane Society's mission of caring for homeless, abused, neglected animals, while educating the community to instill an increased awareness and commitment to the responsibility of animal ownership and protection.

Mallard Hall Estate is a historic home located in the heart of Shelby County. Recently renovated, it is one of the hottest new venues in Kentucky. To learn more about Mallard Hall Estate, click HERE.

The evening will include live music, dinner, drinks, and will feature local heroes within our community....but not the human type, our furry friends. A silent auction featuring many pieces of animal-themed artwork, as well as live auction and other fundraising activities will help to raise money for SCHS.

The following ticket options are available.

- Individual, General Admission Ticket ($100): Admission for one, includes dinner, drinks, & entertainment.
- Individual VIP Ticket ($200): Includes a VIP, behind-the-scenes tour & historical overview of Mallard Estate by the owner of the Estate. Also includes early entry to the venue, a wine-tasting, and special gift.
