Oct 19th – Trail or Treat

The poster features a purple background with various Halloween-themed illustrations. In the top left, there is a logo for Shelbyville Parks & Recreation consisting of a green triangle divided into smaller triangles, each containing a different recreational icon. To its right is the 'FROGGY' logo with a green frog face integrated into the letter 'O', and the radio frequencies '101.7' and '104.9' below it. The main title 'TRICK OR TREAT STREET and TRAIL OR TREAT' is written in large, bold, green and orange letters. Below this, the date 'Saturday, October 19th' is displayed in large white letters. The central illustration shows three children in black costumes (a boy, a girl, and a ghost) walking towards the left against a large orange full moon. Silhouettes of trees, bats, and a spider are also present. At the bottom, the time '5-6:30PM' is written in orange, followed by the location 'Clear Creek Park', '717 Burks Branch Rd.', and 'Shelbyville, KY 40065' in white. The phrase 'FREE FOR ALL!' is at the very bottom in green.

801 DISCOVERY BLVD

"Once upon a midnight dreary, while I sat
 and, weak and weary,
 Over many a quaint and curious volume
 of forgotten lore,
 While I nodded, nearly napping,
 Suddenly there came a tapping,
 As of some one gently tapping,
 My chamber door.
 "'Tis some visitor," I muttered,
 Tapping at my chamber door —
 Only this, and nothing more."
 Ah, distinctly I remember it
 Of the bleak December,
 And each separate dying ember
 Gave quest upon the floor.
 Eagerly I wished the morrow;
 — vainly I had sought to borrow
 From my books surcease of sorrow —
 Sorrow for the lost Lenore —
 For the rare and radiant maiden
 Whose nameLenore
 Nameless here I leave you.
 And the silken sad uncertain rustling
 Of each purple curtain,
 Thrilled me, filled me,
 My sense as I recall the details
 Of that night now, to stilling
 And to my bed repeated
 Till some visitor entranting entrance at my chamber door
 Some late, ungodly hour,
 At my chamber door —
 A slow and easy, and faint raven
 Back into the chamber turning,
 All within me burning,
 Soon again I heard a tapping
 More louder than before.
 "Surely," said I, "surely that is coming at my window late —
 Let me see, then, what there
 In this mystery explore —
 Let my heart be still a moor,
 And this mystery explore; —
 'Tis the wind and nothing more!
 Open here I flung the shutter,
 When, many a flit and flutter,
 In there stepped a stately raven
 With saintly days of yore;
 Not the least obeisance made he;
 No sorry tale he told or stayed he;
 And with a voice of lord or lady,
 Quaint and anor chamber door —
 "Open here I flung the bust of Pallas
 From my door —
 "What dares that beat, and nothing
 Shall see my bird beguiling
 My fancy into smiling.
 "Whence camest thou, and deserting
 Countenance it wore.
 "Thy crest was worn, thy eyes
 Had seen that horror's door!
 "O'er my soul," I said, "art thou not Ghostly grim and dooming?
 O'er thy right shoulder
 I see the pale, yellow gleam of
 The old, old name!"
